

ESCHATON FOUNDATION BOARD

The Resource Center is a program of the Eschaton Foundation. Eschaton maintains 501(c)3 status and holds title to the property.

Tom Helman, President, Assistant Director of the Community
Action Board

Mitchell Page, Vice President, attorney.

Jane Weed, Director of Positive Discipline.

Darrell Darling, co-owner of Darling House Bed and Breakfast

Peter Klotz-Chamberlin, RCNV staff member.

FUNDING:

The Resource Center for Nonviolence is primarily supported by individual donations from people like you who support a home base for nonviolent social change.

TO DONATE: visit rcnv.org, or send contributions to
RCNV, 612 Ocean St.,
Santa Cruz, CA 95060

VOLUNTEER:

RCNV welcomes volunteers and interns to participate in its programs and organizational support. Contact us to get involved.

The Resource Center for Nonviolence
promotes the practice of nonviolence in personal and social change
to create a more just,
peaceful and sustainable world.

We appreciate your support.

Resource Center
for Nonviolence
612 Ocean St., Santa Cruz
831-423-1626 www.rcnv.org
rcnvinfo@gmail.com

Open Monday-Thursday, 12-4

612 Ocean Street, Santa Cruz, CA 95060
www.rcnv.org rcnvinfo@gmail.com
831-423-1626

Open Monday-Thursday, 12-4

 Find us on Facebook
Resource Center for Nonviolence

PROGRAMS:

Active Nonviolence:

Trainings, study groups and engagement with diverse activists

Public Forums: Speakers tell stories and analyses from struggles around the world

Project ReGeneration and Youth empowerment: Monthly people-powered

Open Mics; art and activism by the new generation of activists

GI Rights Hotline: counseling for people in the military and people considering alternatives to military service

Palestine Israel Action Committee: seeks human rights for Palestinians and Israelis

Alternatives to violence

Bookstore, Library, Films

Casa de Kennedy: activist, cooperative household has occasional openings.

FACILITIES:

Community Center available for rental:

Scott Kennedy Hall (capacity 200)

Community Room (capacity 60)

The Center hosts meetings, performances, films, celebrations, exhibits.

For schedules and rates:

Tom Monahan

831.423.1626 extension 106

or rcnventals@rcnv.org

STAFF:

Jay Bhukhan: Nonviolence Programs Co-coordinator. Project ReGeneration coordinator; youth mentor, Nonviolence Training Coordinator.

Anita Heckman: Administration, publications, publicity, volunteer coordination. Anita leads the office. She is an artist and mother with a passion for community and long-time dedication to RCNV.

Irene O'Connell: Nonviolence Programs Coordinator. Irene organizes nonviolence trainings and Project ReGeneration Co-coordinator.

Peter Klotz-Chamberlin: Nonviolence Programs Coordinator. Peter is a co-founder who enjoys nonviolence training, organizational development, networking, and hiking.

Numerous Interns and Volunteers also join us in our work. Please call or email us to get involved: 831.423.1626, rcnvinfo@gmail.com

MISSION:

Founded in 1976, the Center provides resources for critical reflection, constructive action and leadership development. The Resource Center is a community center, public forum, and training center for diverse groups and individuals to address social problems by life-affirming, nonviolent means.

STEERING COMMITTEE:

Sami Abed, union leader, small business owner, emergency medical responder, Middle East nonviolent activist.

Darrell Darling, a progressive Christian activist, small business owner, and political party activist.

Cynthia Gutierrez: Prison Project Coordinator, Barrios Unidos

Maile McGrew-Fredé: Santa Cruz Public Library

Steve Schnaar, Santa Cruz Fruit Tree Project, Bike Church

Belita Magee: Cabrillo College administrator

Ellen Murtha, Business Services Liaison with the Workforce Investment Board of Santa Cruz County.

Teela Williams: United Way of SC County

RCNV COMMITTEES:

- ❖ Finance
- ❖ Personnel
- ❖ Capital Campaign
- ❖ Buildings and Grounds
- ❖ Fundraising
- ❖ Practice Nonviolence
- ❖ Project ReGeneration
- ❖ Palestine Israel Action Committee
- ❖ GI Rights Hotline

“The focus is on the growth and development of people as a basis for structural change.”

— Resource Manual for a Living Revolution