

Senses Cultural & the Resource Center for Nonviolence present

ENDURING POWER:

THE MIDDLE EASTERN and IRANIAN WOMAN'S STORY

— A Photography Exhibit —

November 2 –
December 17
2015

- AT: Resource Center for Nonviolence, 612 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA ■
- Exhibit HOURS: Sunday 2-4; Monday -Friday noon – 4p.m. or by appointment

Enduring Power's striking images represent a wide range of experiences, aspirations, fears and realities of women from Yemen, Egypt, Bahrain, Iran and Kuwait.

A collection of work from several female photographers of Middle Eastern backgrounds, Enduring Power shows an intimate and unique perspective of an otherwise private world to the American audience.

“Peering behind the veil and headscarves to reveal real individuals is a delicate but necessary boundary to push... Let their stories be heard.” — Sina Araghi, curator

■ FIRST FRIDAY RECEPTION & FILMS ■

December 4, 6 - 9PM

6:00 & 8:00: in honor of International Human Rights day, six short films-- two screenings: “The Trials of Spring” Three years. Six revolutions. Nine women. Fighting for peace in a state of war in Yemen, Egypt, Bahrain, Libya, Tunisia and Syria

7:00: Tata Masud, Founder and CEO of Senses Cultural, Davis, CA

— Light refreshments provided —

Sponsored by the Resource Center for Nonviolence and Senses Cultural
Co-sponsors: (list in formation)
WILPF Santa Cruz,
Santa Cruz United Nations Association

■ For more information: rcnv.org 831.423.1626 ■