

FILM SHOWING: Into the Sea

Tuesday, December 1, 7:30 PM

AT the Resource Center for Nonviolence, 612 Ocean St., Santa Cruz, CA

The inspiring story of the first surfers in remote Baluchistan, IRAN.

Irish champion surfer Easkey Britton is joined by two pioneering Iranian sports women who use surfing as a tool for empowerment, self-expression, and bridging barriers. Together they plant the seed for new opportunities and use surfing as a creative medium for social change. (52 minutes)

Part of ENDURING POWER: The Middle Eastern and Iranian Woman's Story exhibit, on display through December 17, sponsored by the Resource Center for Nonviolence and Senses Cultural.

Co-sponsored by WILPF Santa Cruz and SC United Nations Association. Donations accepted.

For more information, visit rcnv.org, or call (831)423-1626